

India's Best Law Schools 2019

With the perception towards law changing considerably over the past few years, the number of students seeking a career in law has grown tremendously. India is home to many top law institutes apart from the other thousands of institutes; it becomes vital to choose a recognized law college if one is willing to make big in the field of law.

Foremost factors being faculty, placements, courses offered and infrastructure, aspirants are willing to give it their all to be in the top institutes; but getting to identify those top institutes gets challenging with existence of so many law colleges and also the competition amongst the candidates. With the results of the Chronicle's All India Law School Survey 2019, we would like to highlight the premier institutes offering just the right balance of academics, real world exposure and an infrastructure in tune with their motive to produce highly focused individuals in the area of law.
